Institutional Distinctiveness

The HLG Govt. college could now boast of being a P.G.College due to its starting of M.A.Geography.

The college has got access to new teaching devices like ICT learning.

So many cultural activities were made integral to teaching in order to develop the overall personality of the students.

The women cell of the college and the NSS wing of the college initiated a number of initiatives. The cleanliness drive was undertaken by the NSS students of the college and in order to make the campus more green so many new plants/trees were planted in the campus. The college is gradually becoming more and more green and eco -friendly.

The institution has acquired the status of a leading one in this Mewat region and is instrumental in giving education to extremely deprived section of the society.

The students of the college are being taken to historical places on education tours.
